

Seaway Singers: Hark, the Glad Sound

R. Comfort – Leader staff
WILLIAMSBURG – Sunday afternoon the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church was filled with music as the Seaway Valley Singers presented their winter show which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Directed by Robert Jones, the singers skillfully entertained delivering 14 seasonal offerings.

Choir alto Lorraine Howard joined SVS accompanist Margaret Whisselle on the flute for Advent Carol of Hope and then on the clarinet for Mary, Could You Have Known.

Howard's daughter Kristina Medina on violin joined soprano Margaret Whisselle for Gesù Bambino (pictured below)

Other pieces included: Ring, Christmas Bells, A Child is Born in Bethlehem, Gloria in Excelsis Deo, Come to Where Shepherds Kneel, The First Nowell, Coventry Carol, Hanukkah Night, Yule Be Rockin', The Christmas Song, A One-Horse Open Sleigh, Hallelujah Chorus.

Seaway Valley Singers include: Sopranos - Joanne Baker, Susan Bradley, Colleen Fitzpatrick, Helen Glaus, Shirley Helder, Elizabeth Irwin, Chris Jarvis, Lisa Praine, Margaret Reid, Pat Rémillard, Rhonda Schneckenburger, Madeleine Sisk, Rosemary Wells, Susan Wells; Altos - Dawn Atwood-Ouellette, Carol Barkley, Nancy Bresnahan, Isabelle Delage, Heather Garlough, Lorraine Howard, Kristen Hunkin, Nancy Jordan, Annette McRae, Donna Quesnel, Lis VandenBerg, Margo Van Gilst; Tenors - Volker Gruetzner, Sam Moss, Rob Ruddock, Brian Speer, Brian VandenBerg; Basses - Graham Jacques, Randy Lacey, Liam Rolley, Mike Ouellette, Bill Simmonds, Rob Whythe. (Absent: Dave Black, Ruth Bradley, Angela DeVries, Jill Dumaresq).

